The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors.

SECTION 5.06 Remote Participation at Meetings

The Board of Directors of DEMCO is committed to acting in a timely manner to address the service needs of its members and the business requirements of the corporation. The board acknowledges that attendance at committee and board meetings is essential for its members to perform their official duties and to add diversity of thought and opinion in the board's deliberations. The board strongly encourages its members to be physically present for all committee and board meetings. The board recognizes, however, that extenuating circumstances may occasionally prevent a member from being physically present at a meeting. It further recognizes that advances in technology, such as audio and video conferencing, have made it possible for members to communicate and deliberate with each other from remote locations. Therefore, to promote full participation of board members, the board authorizes remote participation in committee and regular and special board meetings if the member is prevented from physically attending the meeting.

A Board member shall be authorized to participate at a regular Board meeting, special Board meeting, or committee meeting by telephone or any other electronic means which permits the Board member to hear and be heard during any such meeting, and such participation shall constitute attendance at said meeting and shall count toward a quorum in the following circumstances:

- (a) The President of the United States or the Governor of the State of Louisiana declares a state of emergency for all or a part of the DEMCO service area, or the President of the DEMCO Board of Directors declares that emergency conditions exist on all or a part of the DEMCO service area, and any affected DEMCO Board member determines, with the consent of the President of the Board of Directors, that the weather, infrastructure, or other conditions prevent him from safely traveling to the scheduled meeting;

- (b) The President of the DEMCO Board of Directors determines, after a survey of the Board members, that a quorum cannot be established for a scheduled meeting that is required in order for DEMCO to take action to meet a deadline established by federal, state, or local laws or regulations, or where action must be taken to meet a deadline on a business matter that would cause meaningful financial or other harm to the corporation or members if the deadline was missed;
- (c) Personal illness, disability, order of quarantine or isolation, or government-issued “stay-at-home” mandate;
- (d) Out-of-town travel for corporate business;
- (e) Family member illness or emergency;
- (f) Weather conditions;
- (g) Military Service; or
- (h) Employment obligations.

Remote participation is not to be used solely for a board member’s convenience or to avoid attending a particular meeting in person. Effective January 18, 2024, no board member may participate remotely more than four (4) meetings during a calendar year; however, in justifiable circumstances, the board may, by two-thirds vote, agree to waive this limitation.

A member of the board who desires to participate in a meeting remotely shall notify the Committee Chair, Board President, or the General Manager’s Office at least four hours in advance of the meeting so that necessary arrangements can be made. The Committee Chair or Board President shall announce the remote participant and the means of remote participation at the beginning of the meeting.

A written notation explaining the justification authorized by Section 5.06 for any remote participation by a Board of Director shall be placed in the minutes of any meeting where remote participation was undertaken and the notation “BY REMOTE PARTICIPATION” shall be placed next to the name of the director in the roll call section of the minutes of the meeting. (As amended by the Board of Directors, January 18, 2024)

A vacancy in any office shall be filled by the board of directors for the unexpired portion of the term.
